Starting the morning at the benchs.

Starting the half time with a pom dance.

STARTING OVER in a new decade is hard work, but Alhambra successfully launched into its next twenty years. Starting with a new principal, Mr. Robert Dye. Starting with many new department chairpersons, a new custodial staff, a new newspaper advisor, and some new faces among the faculty and staff. Starting with Mrs. Winslow in the front office taking Mr. Barraza's place. Starting with new dugouts, which last year's seniors donated to the school. Starting with a tougher attendance policy. Starting with the locking of the 200 building during school. Starting with newcomers from West, North, East, Phoenix Union, and the freshmen.

But, even though Alhambra is starting with several new things, the school also has many old things. Its traditions, all the sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and familiar teachers who have returned. The list of old and new things could go on forever. All the FORTRESS staff is trying to say is, "Thank you, Alhambra, for getting off on the right foot, in STARTING OVER!!!"

Two AFS students welcomed at AHS

American Field Service, AFS, is for foreign exchange students. Such as, Anna Normann from Sweden and many others who have come to Alhambra, and many other schools, from all over the world, including the United States.

As mentioned above, Anna Norman is one of the foreign exchange students who have come to Alhambra. Also, there is Susan Pargiter from South Africa and Ursala Rethschulte (Uschi) from Germany, who left at the beginning of the year.

According to Charlee Wallace, an authority of AFS said that Alhambra receives the pick of the crop. All the students we get are fantastic, very adaptable, and extremely open. Most AFS students are open to life and they want to find out as much as they can to make theirs the fullest. Also another reason why these students come to the U.S. is to learn about how life is and to see how wonderful it really is.

Susan Pargiter takes time from her active social schedule to relax on campus.

Yee Haw!!! it's Rodeo Week

At Friday's rodeo assembly, Gregg Bunting attacks Todd McClain after crawling through the mud used for the tug-of-war event.

Sean McHenry, Sean Blochberger, and Mike Rettler pose as the Black Vest Gang after being captured and caged.

Sean Blochberger marries two unknown victims as Mike R., Mr. Goss, and a friend witness the ceremony.

Students teach students

Members of the National Honor Society (NHS) learned self reliance, management of time and money, and how to improve interpersonal relations. To learn these fine qualities, the students went to business meetings, sales meetings, and had a tutoring program for students.

To become a member of N.H.S., a student must have scholarship, leadership and character abilities, and be elected by the Honors and Awards Committee. If chosen, they met once a month.

The sponsors for N.H.S. this year were Mrs. Beeson, Mr. D. Tillotson, and Mrs. McGaffic. The officers this year were President-Julee Gibbons, Vice President-Kelli Bonham, Secretary-Dodi Gibbons, and Treasurer-Kathy Perryman. They all helped all the members learn the most they could.

Government run by students

The American Legion has sponsored Boys and Girls State for the past thirty-six years. The students have the opportunity to study and experience the workings of government. The students participated in the political process of organizing and administrating the various political and governmental agencies of a state government. This year there were four girls and four boys who represented Alhambra at Boys and Girls State. The girls, Julie Blackshire, Kathy Perryman, Kim Chandler, and Donna Cheung, went to the University of Arizona. The boys, Sean Blochberger, Terry Pfeifer, Robert Hallada, and Jeff Smallidge, went to Northern Arizona University.

Julie Blackshire, Kathy Perryman, and Donna Cheung went to U of A for Girls State.

Robert Hallada, Sean Blochberger, and Terry Pfeifer went to NAU for Boys State.

Honors in culture, journalism

Parnassus was sponsored by Mrs. Moore. In order to have been in Parnassus, the members were on the honor roll at least one semester. They met every second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Parnassus members involved themselves in attending events such as Lyric Opera Theater presentations, Phoenix Little Theater, Phoenix Symphony, and the Phoenix Art Museum. The students learned cultural enrichment as well as knowledge of the arts.

Quill & Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, was organized on April 10, 1926, by a group of high school publcations advisors. Since its organization, Quill & Scroll has granted charters to more than 11,300 high schools and Alhambra had the privilege of having one of these charters.

To be a member of Quill & Scroll a student must be either a junior or senior having good scholastic standing and have at least one year experience in a publications or be presently on a publications staff. The people in Quill & Scroll learned how to improve themselves in journalism.

Mr. Dye appears to be the center of attention at the homecoming assembly.

"The late show" starring: AHS Lions

The 1982 Lion's Homecoming was truly an exciting event to remember. A spectacular firework show illuminated the sky filling the air with excitement, as the mighty Lions went on to win the game against South Mountain.

The parade of floats was highlighted by the crowning of the king and queen, Jon Smith and Carmel Washington. The Senior Class float, "Tarzan," took first place in the float competition. Key Club's "Barney Miller" followed, placing second.

During the week many activities were held, along with floatbuilding and a carnation sale.

Bob and Julie, third attendants, make the most of homecoming night.

Paul Mancuso and Michelle Johnson pose as Tarzan and Jane.

Carmel Washington, homecoming queen, gives her opinion at a club meeting.

Tracy Pierce and Dorothy Lizarraga are chosen as second attendants.

Joe Havlik and Sandy McGrady are chosen as fourth attendants.

The second place Key Club float displays the jailing of the Rebs.

Sandy McGrady gracefully shows off her karate moves.

"Oh no! I'm losing!" says Kelly Niehuis as she juggles an egg.

Sean Blochberger is up for bids during the slave sale.

Seniors are making it to the top.

Mascots show their Lion pride

This year's Mascots were Debbie Quan, Beth Nullman, Marci Woodruff, and Julie Harris. Mr. Wayne Anthony was the sponsor and Debbie Quan was the captain. All four mascots had to meet certain requirements in order to be a mascot. They had to participate in spring try-outs, which included a test of sports and performance. The mascots attended many sporting events.

This year they started something new. They supported the girl's sports events. Aside from supporting the spirit of Alhambra sports, the mascots also went to local hospitals to cheer up children.

The mascots also held some fund-raising events.

"Our spirit is sky high"

The 1982-83 Varsity Cheerleading Squad, led by captain, Judi Estes, and co-captain, Paige DeHart boosted school spirit by cheering at all the football and basketball games. Along with the games, they cheered at assemblies and pep rallies, also performing creative mounts.

At summer camp both the Varsity and JV won a spirit stick, along with many superior ribbons.

Under the direction of the new sponsor, Ms. Tabasso, each member of the Varsity and JV squads sold homecoming ribbons and candy.

Pom highlights halftime shows

The 1982-83 Pom line, led by captain Kelly Niehuis and co-captain Sandy McGrady, performed many creative dance routines for enthused AHS crowds. Along with dancing at all the home football and basketball games, they performed at assemblies, pep rallies, marched in the rodeo parade, and competed at ASU's Band Day. Aside from dancing, they supported the cheerleaders by cheering with them during football season.

The Pom line obtained high honors at summer camp. They won a superior trophy along with a third place plaque for home dance and many superior ribbons. Under the direction of the new sponsor, Ms. Milnes, each member of the line sold homecoming ribbons and candy. The money earned will be used for the next year's uniforms and general fund.

Band plays under new director

Band marches in uniform step to one of the many pep assemblies held in the quad.

The 1982-83 Band had a new director this year, Mr. Richard Felix. They played popular songs, such as, Bye Bye Blues, La Bamba, Hey Big Spender, and many others. They played these songs at all pre-game and halftime shows during the football season. The band also played at pep assemblies, sports assemblies, and some basketball games.

For a new twist in music, the marching band became known as the Concert Band. This was done after football season was over.

This year the band performed at the Arizona State Fair, competed in the Arizona State University Band Day, and held a Drum-A-Thon. The proceeds from the Drum-A-Thon went towards sending them to California for another competition. Hopefully in this competition the band will have a wonderful turnout, but they will show their Lion Pride.

Dancing experience learned

Modern Dance had a spring concert and a Christmas program. Diane Malenfant was their sponsor and some requirments were that they had to be a member of Performance Dance. Their spring concert went towards paying for materials and costumes. The students learned performing and stage craft, as well as choreographics and other performing skills. They felt that they were helping the community in a cultural way, as well as getting good experience in dancing.

Chorale performs musical fest

Alhambra's Chorale was sponsored by Mr. C.V. Troup. The officers were president Jamie L. Howard; Vice-president, Billy Barrios, Treasurer, Kim Driscoll; and Secretary Diane Metzendorf. The members of Chorale were established by approval of the instructors. They planned many activities, such as the State Fair Concert, NAU music Festival, Spring Travel Concert, and a end of the year banquet.

They held fundraisers, such as car washes, and candy sales. The proceeds went to awards, trips and for the banquet. The main objective was to have a better understanding of the Chorale music and enjoy entertainment.

Student Body helps school

Student Body Officers were made up of President, Robert Hallada; Vice-president, Julie Blackshire; Secretary Paige Dehart; Recording secretary Donna Cheung and Treasurer Sean Blochberger. They were sponsored by Mr. Thomas Goss. Requirements for membership were to be elected or appointed and to have at least a grade average of 30%.

They earned many awards and participated in many activities. They won the Rotary Club award and earned self-satisfaction. They sponsored the homecoming dance and held various fund raisers during the year. Also, they were involved with the Suns game ticket sales for Make- A-Wish. The students went and worked at the Arizona Recreation Center for the handicapped. All the people in student government learned about self-direction, leadership, and independence.

"Starting Over" FORTRESS theme

"Starting Over" was the theme adopted by the 1983 FORTRESS staff. Editor-in-chief, Donna Szczepaniak; Photo-editor, Sean McHenry; and Advisor, Larry Cunningham; worked together to give the yearbook a different face than the past. An emphasis was put on better photo quality, and coverage of the year's events, and the people of Alhambra High School.

The idea of "Starting Over" was formulated to coincide with a new principal, change in some policies, and a change in the make-up of the student body, because of the closing of other district schools. The theme was carried throughout the introduction and the division pages, which featured photos of real lions.

Fresh ideas came from Donna, Sean, and David who attended the AIPA Publication Workshop held at NAU. Also, several other staff members attended the AIPA Fall Convention, which was held at Central Arizona College.

Haire new advisor for SCIMITAR

Taking on a new look this year, the Scimitar had a new advisor, Mr. Haire, who brought some new and fresh ideas to the newspaper. One was to have the Scimitar printed on real newsprint as a full sized paper. Previously, under district policy, the newspaper had to be printed as a half tabloid on 80% white paper stock. With the help of new principal, Mr. Dye, the staff was able to print the new size. Another idea was to have the newspaper type face enlarged to a more legible size.

Under editor-in- chief Dodi Gibbons, the Scimitar attempted to cover more timely news events as well as to do some in depth reporting on subjects that interested most students. The staff also added some features that large city newspapers included, such as printed cartoons, puzzles, quizzes, and brighter graphics. The masthead was run in color on several issues to help give the Scimitar a more brilliant and cheerful look.

ROTC takes pride

The Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps had many activities. The Cadets had fundraisers, such as candy sales and they also collected for Gompers Rehabilitation Center. Also, some of the money went to purchasing better equipment.

Their sponsor, Maj. Thomas S. Gruhn, said that the only requirement was to belong to the PUHS District. The students were taught first aid, map reading, drills, military knowledge, military courtesy, citizenship, and responsibility.

Key Club: "Strengthen from Within"

"Strengthen from Within" was the Key Club's International theme this year.

Mr. Wayne Anthony and Mr. John Russell sponsored the club. The president was Dan Masters. Club requirements were to pay yearly dues. They met every Monday evening. Almost every Saturday a project was planned by members.

They planned many fund-raising programs to pay for club projects. Among these were a candy sale, Christmas decoration sale, and a dunk tank during homecoming week.

One of the club's main projects was working at The Beatitudes Campus of Care, a home for the elderly. They worked for The Hacienda de Los Angeles, a home for the mentally and physically retarded, and The Crisis Center, a home for physically and mentally abused children.

The Key Club members learned how to be someone, how to work with others, and how to have leadership development from their activities.

ACADEMICS

Missi,

Well, another year gone by and we only have two more years to go. Lunch has really been great! At least we lived through it! You are really a nice person and I would like to be better friends in years to come. Keep in touch over the summer. Keep cool too, it's gonna be a hot one! Good luck in everything you do. Take care! Your friend,

Keep smiling! ☺ "The first Romana"

AHS'S new Principal, Mr. Dye

PUHS Superintendent Dr. Henderson presents Mr. Dye with the JROTC honor plaque.

There were many changes at Alhambra this year. There were some new rules, a new attendance policy, and best of all, a new principal.

Mr. Wellesley Goodwin, Alhambra's old principal, went to Maryvale High School and Alhambra received Mr. Robert A. Dye, former West High principal

Mr. Dye started out 24 years ago as a parttime counselor-teacher at Phoenix Union High School. He worked hard until he became a principal, which came about in 1974 when he became the principal of West High where he was for eight years.

When Mr. Dye came here, he enforced some new rules. One was that "no hats or headgear worn inside the buildings by young men at any time." Another was the enforcment of the Pledge of Allegiance and a moment of silence every morning. He wasn't as strict on the "Pledge Rule" as he was on the "Hat Rule." Another change made by Mr. Dye was that he made announcements every Friday over the P.A. system.

Alhambra also had a new attendance policy this year. The parent had to call in before noon on the day of the absence, or send a note of excuse with the student on the first day back.

Mr. Dye sits listening to the Russian Air Force captain with an Air Force colonel from the USA next to him.

Mr. Dye cooks pancakes for the annual pancake breakfast.

Administration keeps all in line.

Mr. Rene Diaz, Assistant principal, extended day school, stops his work to smile for the photographer.

Art gets new ceramics room

The Art Department got a new room for ceramics classes this year. It provided more storage space and working areas.

The goals the art teachers had for the students were to teach them an awareness of the great variety of visual arts, develop skills and knowledge needed to pursue an art career, as well as many other opportunities.

Some of the classes offered in the Art Department were Crafts I-6; Sculpture I-6; Photo I-6; Ceramics I-6; and many other courses.

Mr. Gerald Bridgeman taught Crafts I-6, Art I-2, and Sculpture I-6, Department Chairman.
Mr. Larry Cunningham taught Photo I-6, English 3-4, and was the Yearbook advisor.
Miss Marynelle Hartman taught Ceramics I-6.
Mrs. Joan MacGillvray taught Advertising Design I-4, Graphics I-2, Fashion Design, Drawing I-6, Painting I-6, and Art I-2.

Home Ec helps students prepare

Tucked away in the archives of the 700 building was one of the more important classes to AHS students. As the loyal come and go the world reaches out and very few are ready for it. Leading in the fight to prepare students was the Home Economics Department. All electives, these courses ranged from Foods and Clothing to Single Survival. These courses helped the average student prepare for the outside world. Also among these courses were two programs that aided in helping students to make career choices. The HOPE and HERO programs stood as a fine examples of Lion Pride.

Students work out problems at one of the new computers as Mr. Goodrich observes.

English offers many electives

Part of the school's required courses was almost everyone's favorite, English. The students were required to take four years of English, but the English Department offered electives for those students who thrived for more. Among them were such courses as Journalism or Short Story.

This was the last year that only three years of English were required for those graduating this year. Very soon almost every student will become familiar with the English Department, somehow or another. Although it is required, the main objective of the English Department was still to help students learn about the language and the usage of it.

Mr. John Campbell taught English 3-4WE, Senior Writing Skills; CTA Unit Chairman, Department Chairman.
Mrs. Nancy Beeson taught English 3-4 and Gifted Program.

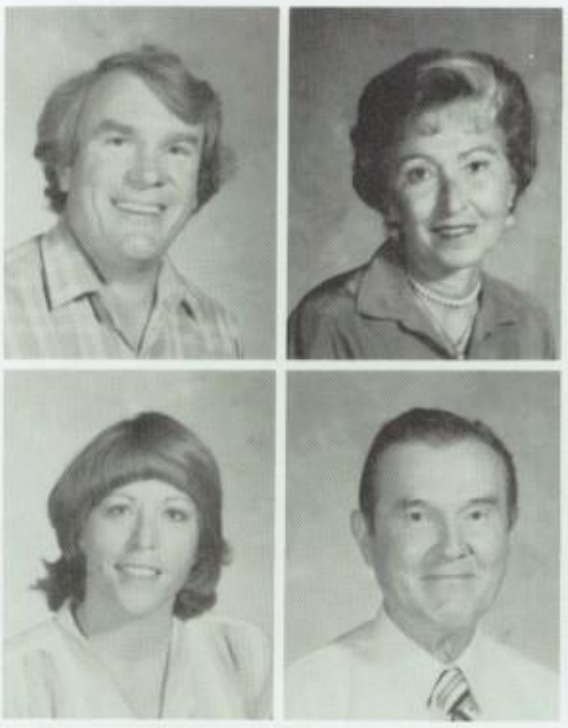
Mrs. Colleen Roth taught Earth Science 1-2.

Chris Dawson writes his observations down after finishing an experiment in Chemistry.

America taught in history

This world is a big place and helping to learn more about it was the Social Studies Department. Part required and part not, this department was very well used and appreciated by the students. The required courses, staggered over four years, provided an understanding of what was out there. The Government and History classes helped explain some of the background of the best nation around. If a student was even more interested, he could choose from more specialized classes like Anthropology or Humanities to satisfy any curiosity.



Mr. Bill Wharton taught America History I-2G and World History I-2, Department Chairman
Mrs. Libby Friedman taught American History I-2 and I-2A.

Mr. Al Horcasitas was department chairman.
Mr. William Owens counseled EH/LD students.
Mr. Alan Adams taught EH self contained.
Mr. Wayne Anthony taught Practical Math

As one of the more helpful departments of the school, the Exceptional Students Program assisted students with learning disabilities, emotional problems, physical problems, and mental retardation. They also prepared the exceptional students so they would eventually be able to succeed in the mainstream of the school.

Some of the classes offered for the exceptional students were Practical Math 1-4, Practical Reading, Practical English 1-8, Practical American History, Pratical Free Enterpries, Life Skills, Learning Skills Lab, and Basic Science.

This was the first year of teaching at Alhambra for Ms. Deborah Roman and Ms. Michele Tobasso.

Mrs. Charyn Berg taught TMH Self contained.
Mr. Michael DiBenedetto taught Basic English, American History.
Ms. Rasma Ekmanis taught Basic American Government 1-2, LSL.
Mr. Ken Hampton taught Basic Science 1-2, Practical English 5-6, and Basic Health 1-2.

Mr. Craig Niece taught Basic English and LSL.
Mr. Mike Pappas taught Practical Shop 1-2, Math 3-4, and Vocational Prep 3-4.
Ms. Deborah Roman taught Practical Free Enterprise.
Miss Yolanda Smith taught Practical Science.

Ms. Michelle Tobasso taught VMH self cantained.
Mrs. Beatrice Wayman taught Mass Production Lab. and Work Experience.

Students learn by teaching

In the ROTC Department, there were many classes offered. Among them were marksmanship, map reading, military courtesy, first-aid, and drill. The MOI class, given by older cadets to other cadets, helped the students learn to speak in front of a group and research a topic, Then they gave their reports in front of the rest of the class in about 20 minutes. The main objectives were to learn leadership and responsibility.

Major Thomas Gruhn taught the upper cadets in applied through advanced leadership development.

Counselors help students through

The objective of the Guidance Department was to serve the students and staff of Alhambra as well as the Alhambra community. The counselors helped students with problems they had, such as needing a schedule change or any personal problems they might have. They also helped students with schedule changes and registration. Early in the second semester, the counselors went to the Alhambra District elementary schools to aid the eighth grade studetns with registration.

Security keeps Alhambra running

John Porter and a student rush off to another problem as part of his job.

There were a few changes in the security staff. The group was provided with student assistants each hour. This helped with a few of the minor skirmishes. They also got a new full time guard to go along with the regular group. Actually their job is quite simple: to keep the student body in control and to see that everything goes very smoothly in the daily life of the students of Alhambra. They also watch over to see that no fights break out and to take care of such things as vandalism, theft, and car registration. They did this all with a great deal of control and style. All together, this year went very well and we hope security will keep up the good work.

Services benefit school

The people in the Services Department this year were there to help students with psychological problems, or physical, speech, hearing, vision, and illness. The services were provided by the school psychologist, occupational therapist and the various other departments available to all students. Many students were able to use them and reap the benefits from them.

In the Instructional Materials Department, students and faculty could find resources for reports, films, records, careers, video tapes, and magazines. Also, the Xerox machine was available for copying and duplicating all manner of materials.

The Alhambra Varsity Football team had an outstanding season starting with the first game against Apollo, being victorious. Winning the first game gave the players confidence to win seven other games. With that record, they went to the playoffs which they unfortunately lost to Maryvale.

The Lions had some excellent players this year. Ray Carter received three awards: one for Outstanding Offensive Lineman, Defensive back and for the 500 point club. Paul Brandon received the Outstanding Offensive Back award. Outstanding Defensive player went to Arnold Stiner and Victor Salinez who both also received awards for the 500 point club.

Most Improved Player went to Isaac Aguirre and Norm Woodmansee.

The Scout Team award went to Eric Foster. Matt Owens award went to Angel Mendez. Niuafe Tuihalamaka got two awards, one for Outstanding Sophomore and for 500 point Club. Jon Smith, Angel Mendez and Tracey Pierce all received Co-Captain honors.

JV team rebuilds for next year

The Lions had a very disappointing season with a 7 loss 1 win record. It seemed no matter how many hours they would practice or how much effort they put into their practices, when game time arrived, if there were any bad breaks to be had, the Alhambra Lions JV team was the one that got them. But in each one of the games, they played very aggressively and both defense and offense tried to do their very best.

If they come back with the same spirit and the same hard work by the coaches, next year will be a completely different year.

Freshman team has victorious season

The Alhambra Lions freshman football team had an exceptionally outstanding year in 1982. Every afternoon that they played it seemed that every play seemed to go as planned.

The Lions record was almost perfect. They won seven out of the eight games they played. Alhambra had one bad afternoon where they lost to the Maryvale Panthers with a score of 25 to 7.

The freshman coach, Richard Johnson, must be especially pleased with the performance of these outstanding young players.

By the way they played this year next season will probably be the best year for the junior varsity team.

Cross Country has success

The 1982-83 Cross Country teams had one of the best seasons they have had. The Boy's Cross Country team had five wins and seven losses, and the girl's team had three wins, five losses, and a tie. The Boy's Cross Country team consisted of four varsity and five JV runners. On the Girl's Cross Country team there were eleven runners, for a total of twenty runners all together.

Team spikes way to Central Tourney

The Varsity Volleyball team had a reasonably good year. They had a six and nine season. That record put them into the Central Tournament. They played Apollo, Mountain View, and Central and won against them all. This year's team was coached successfully by Coach William Liao. Approximately thirty people tried out and only eleven of them made the team. Only three members returned from last year.

Fairly good season for Varsity Basketball

Alhambra's Varsity Basketball team had a fairly good season. They started their season losing the first game against Westwood. That definitely did not stop them from winning other games. The Lions had a record of fourteen wins and nine losses.

With that record, they went to the divisional playoffs which they unfortunately lost to Agua Fria. Alhambra also played in the Christmas tournament in which they placed first against Central. Alhambra also placed third in Metro League B.

The problem the Lions had this year was a few of the players were transferred from West, so the team wasn't used to working together.

Alhambra sends three wrestlers to state

Alhambra's Wrestling team had a rough season. They only won three matches. Two matches had to be forfeited because there was an ineligable student who wrestled against those teams.

During the tournament matches against Greenway, the Lions finished eighth with help from Marty McDowell fourth, Tony Hammonds fourth, Steve Thornton fourth, Angel Mendez fifth, and Nehumi Tuihalamaka sixth. The Lions came in twentieth place against Peoria with Tony Hammonds fourth and Angel Mendez sixth. In the Metro Division tourney Tony Hammonds placed fourth along with Aaron La-Duke, and Steve Thornton. Overall the team placed ninth.

Alhambra was represented in the state tournament by three fine members of the wrestling team. These members were senior, Steve Thornton: junior Tony Hammonds, and freshman Aaron LaDuke.

Outstanding season for girls track

Alhambra's 1982 Varsity Girls Track Team had a record of six wins and two losses, which was outstanding. Alhambra also did well in the tournaments they participated in. At Shadow Mountain they placed third. In the district playoffs relays, the team took second place; Valley Classics, sixth place; Division, fourth place; and in State Championships got ten points.

The Lions set the Dual Meet record for the last seven year, 52-6, under Sam Nassif.

Girls basketball posts good season

Alhambra's 1982 Girls Basketball team started out the season well by beating Tolleson 60-52. The next five games the Lions won. They unfortunately lost to South and Camelback. Alhambra then had a five in a row streak beating Carl Hayden, Maryvale, West, Trevor Browne and Central. They lost the next six games, but one of them was because of a forfeit. Alhambra won, then lost, but ended the season with a victory over West.

CLASSES

June leads the class of "83"

The freed class of "83", led by Scott June, celebrated a great year. They got a little help though, from Miss Johnson, Miss Hurlburt, and Mr. Giambruno.

The Seniors held many fundraising activities throughout the year. Among them, they held a carnation and candy sale, a dance, and a new computer match-up. These helped to offset the cost of giving the senior class gift, and finally, the Senior fling. Also the Alhambra night at the Pheonix suns basketball game helped raise noney for the Make-a-Wish program. Besides fundraising, they also placed first in the Homecoming float building contest for the second year in a row.

Meeting everyday during lunch, the senior class officers blazed through to help plan and organize such activities. These meetings and activities helped the student body to learn leadership and a sense of responsibility.

Julie Pettett class of "84" president

The junior class which was sponsored by Mr. McCauley with the help of other teachers, held many activities throughout the school year. The class built their homecoming float and held dances. Many members also sold candy, key chains, pom-poms, and Heart-O-Grams. The proceeds went towards the Junior-Senior prom, the senior gift, and other various things to help them out.

Juniors for three long years awaited their Junior-Senior prom. They prepared for it and got everything together. The prom was held at the Greenway Sheraton Inn and was truly a moment to remember. Yet, the real excitement was looking forward to their last and final year at Alhambra as seniors. There were many memorable things that happened to the juniors in their three years at Alhambra. As freshmen they experienced the penny pitching. As sophomores there was the treatment as "middle classmen." Then, as juniors they were granted more privileges as upperclassmen.

Sophomore officers made it great

The class of "85 was under the leadership of Tosha Turley. Its sponsors were: Mrs. Harrison with the help of Ms. Hickey, Mr. Haire, and Mrs. Radell.

Sophomores were active throughout the year. Some events that took place were the school calender, candy sales, a carnation sale, and a dance. The classes Homecoming float came in fourth place with the cooperation of the Freshman class. It's theme was "King Kong." The class money that was raised from different fund raising events will go towards next year's Prom and much of it will also go for their Senior gift.

The class said that the different activities they participated in developed quality, leadership, and responsibility. Aside from the fact that they were also having fun. The sophomore class also involved itself in other activities, besides the ones for its own benefit. The members were active in various community work done as a group in Student Government.

Freshmen sponsor peterson jam

The Class of 1986 started the year off with the jitters, as they stood in long lines to await buying their books. To help them find their way around campus the student government was there to lend a helping hand.

The freshman class planned many activities this year. One of these activities was the imitation rock band called Peterson Jam. The bands imitation of Journey, REO Speedwagon and Van Halen.

Freshman Officers: Cindy Newton - Vice-President, Scott Shepard - President, Janet Quan - Secretary-Treasurer.

Scott Shepard, who is running for class president, gives his winning speech to the freshman class.

Starting over with saying good bye

Hey Alhambra,

Well here it is! I attemtped to put together a yearbook and now it's done, with the help and effort from other staffers. I just hope you enjoyed reliving some of the marvelous moments of the 1982-3 school year.

The pleasure and memories that I have obtained in editing the 21st edition of the Fortress can't be measured by the monetary standard's that were put into it but by the satisfaction and pride.

Everyone on the staff is proud to be part of the Fortress. Not only are we all friends and fellow workers, but we are all family. We are all there for one another and help each other along through the tough times. I hope and wish we will all stay as close as we are right now. But, if nt, I want everyone to know how special these people are to me, to come into my life and together produce something as wonderful as this book.

Even though next year I'll be the only returning staffer, I'll be thinking of all of you on the staff and remember and try to do all those great ideas you had; so next year the book will be even better.

See ya next year!

Love ya all,

Donna Szczepaniak

Hey Dick,
you know, you are really weird! No kidding.
I'm glad we had lunch together.
It was a blast (sometimes). Next year lets get a door together & drive the teacher crazy. We better make up a new excuse. We better make up a new excuse for [illegible] you say about
"Life is an awesomely tough inspirational Bitch!"
that says it all! I bet when we're old & gray you'll say the I wish I was nicer to Patty. Because I'll be rich & famous by then. Stay cool. Der kommissar" lives on!
Friends always, P.S. Rip would've written but his hands are sort of tied up!

of course the Guys. Afterall that is what life is all about!

Melissa,
I am so glad you're in my 1st hour english and 2nd hr. Mrs. Mellgert I need an intelligent person such as yourself to help me. I hope you have a happy Xmas during your Junior year & enjoy the summer.

Patrice

Melissa,
It's been great having you in class. I'd like it if we got to talk to you more but still enjoy knowing you and I weren't the only Seville students here.
Until Next year.

Adela

Melissa,
V.C. This year was pretty good for me, hope it was for you too!, Your a nice, good friend. Hope to see you next year.

Jay

To Melvin,

Hey Chic. Life this school year has been rough, but we seem to survive. We had our differences, but through thick + thin - we made it. Next year will be better. We'll knock them dead. Good luck in the future & especially with the guys. It was great having some classes with you, lets hope next year we'll have more. You're a really great friend & super sweet person. Stay 'cool.

Your friend Always

Beth

PS. Good luck with Palo-Rossi. (ha, he, hu)

Melvin,

Im glad I met you. It was nice having you in my History class.
You are a very nice person. Hope I see you next year. Goodbye. Have a nice summer.

Your friend

Michael Jones

Missy,

I know that there has been a lot of conflict between you and the 7th & 8th grade group. I don't understand what it was and never did. I think you're very nice. Be choosey when you get your hair cut! It's been nice having you in chem/physics. Good luck always!

Theresa Giles "85"

Melissa,
Well what can cl say, since cl have alot of time and room to fill up on this page, so cl will write anything. Dont foget all the fun in 3rd pous typing. cl plan to foget a paticular person that is if you consider him a person or even a human. Just think when your going to college you wont have a roomate like Chris, or Fred. cl'm glad cl met you and become your freind and talk about our older problems such as your sister and my brothes. They really have done some amazing funny things to Chris. As cl said earlier cl was going to take up a whole page and cl am. So cl hope that next yar you all the luck in the world with life and love especially love. Well let me see what can cl say now. Remember that when you have a boy-freind make sure that he dosnt look like Fred! Well have a fun-super-fantastic ~~sup~~ sorry! terific summer and hope that next yar you wont have a great american jerk or an head in your class. See ya next year

Love ya
